Day of the Wedding: Order of Procession

In a Catholic wedding, the procession is linked with all other liturgical processions and is simply a joyous, celebratory way to move people from one place to another. When planning your procession, be careful to consider the message that the order you choose communicates. The explicit inclusion of parents in the entrance procession seeks to honor with clear recognition the roles that both mothers and fathers play in the lives of their children. Please complete the following with first and last names; this will be the order in which participants walk in the procession.
